12 v.) DECLARATION OF APPOINTED
13 MO SOOK YANG, et al.,) COUNSEL; STIPULATION AND 14 Defendants.) ~~[PROPOSED]~~ ORDER TO
15) CONTINUE DATE FOR
POSTING PROPERTY

16 I, KENNETH H. WINE, DECLARE:
17 1. I have been appointed, pursuant to the CJA, as counsel
18 for Defendant Mo Sook Yang, in the above referenced case.
19 2. On July 7, 2005, Ms. Yang was release on the $500,000
20 signature bonds of three individuals. The Court also directed that 21 Ms. Yang's real property be posted by July 22, 2005, and that Ms. Yang
22 provide the Court an informal appraisal and title documents to the 23 property.
24 3. The real property owned by Ms. Yang is co-owned with her
25 husband, Young Joon Yang, a co-defendant in this case who is in 26 custody at Santa Rita County Jail.

1 3. On July 18, 2005 I provided the United States and the
2 Court with copies of the informal appraisal and the title documents
3 to Mr. and Mrs. Yang's property.

4 4. On July 18, 2005, I also provided, by hand delivery, to 5 Mr. Yang's attorney, Richard Tamor, the Deed of Trust in favor of 6 Richard Weiking, executed and notarized by my client, in order for Mr.
7 Tamor to arrange to travel to Santa Rita and have the Deed of Trust
8 executed and notarized by his client.

9 5. On the afternoon of July 18, 2005, Mr. Tamor informed
10 me and Ruben Deang that he was no longer able to represent Mr. Yang.

11 6. I immediately called Mr Deang to attempt to get an 12 attorney appointed for Mr. Yang so that the Deed of Trust could be 13 executed and notarized before July 22, 2005.

14 7. I have spoken several times with Mr. Deang over the past
15 week. Mr. Deang has offered the case to five different CJA attorneys,
16 and each has declined the representation. Essentially, Mr. Yang has 17 been without counsel for the past week.

18 8. I spoke this afternoon with Mr. Deang and he has
19 informed me that he sought and received special permission to have Mr.
20 Tamor appointed for Mr. Yang. Mr. Tamor will not be appointed until 21 next week, and will not be able to make the complicated arrangements
22 for obtaining a notarized signature in Santa Rita County Jail, and 23 then county recording, and then Court filing by tomorrow. The process
24 of getting a notary into Santa Rita involves getting security
25 clearance for a notary to enter the Jail, and this is not easily or 26 quickly done.

2 9. I am scheduled for a vacation beginning July 23,
3 returning July 30. I am requesting that the Court delay the date for 4 the filing of the deed of trust securing bail for Ms. Yang for one
5 week, until July 29, 2005.

6
7 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the 8 United States that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this 9 declaration was executed on the 21st day of July, 2005 in San
10 Francisco, California.

17 The United States does not oppose the continuance of the date
18 for Defendant Mo Sook Yang to file the Deed of Trust securing her bail
19 from July 22, 2005 until July 29, 2005 for the above stated reasons.
